1) Most of the courses in the Languages and Cultures Program are offered in either the Fall or Winter semester and not in both semesters. Because of this, it is imperative that you follow the above grid when you register for your courses. The full list of Program courses and the semesters in which they are offered is listed on the next page.

2) Students with previous knowledge of any of the languages taught in this Program - Chinese (Mandarin), German, Italian, Russian and Spanish - should contact the Academic Advising Department.
