Saint Laurent residents fill positions at Vanier College Thomas Ingerman as Registrar Norman Chenail as Director of Human Resources

Vanier College takes great pleasure in announcing several new appointments have been made at the College. Mr Thomas Ingerman has been appointed the new Vanier College Registrar, and Mr Norman Chenail has been named Director of Human Resources.

Thomas Ingerman is a former Vanier employee, who for the past two years has held the position of Manager of Records and Registration at Dawson College. A graduate of Vanier College, Mr Ingerman has worked at Vanier for the better part of the past twenty-nine years.

Raised in Saint Laurent, Thomas Ingerman hails from a family that is committed to education and to the community. One of his sisters teaches at Vanier College and his father is a retired professor from McGill University. Through the years, his father has also been active in federal and provincial politics in Saint Laurent. Thomas Ingerman has always been involved in sports. As a student he worked as a lifeguard and coached swimming in Saint Laurent. He currently volunteers with Saint Laurent youth programs as a coach in the house league soccer program and as treasurer of the house league basketball program.

Mr Ingerman holds a Bachelor of Commerce in Human Resource Management from Concordia University and certificate studies in Systems Analysis and Design from McGill University.

Norman Chenail, Vanier College Director of Human Resources, is also a resident of Saint Laurent where he has been an active member of the community for many years. Mr Chenail brings with him more than thirty years of Human Resources experience in the private sector. Prior to coming to Vanier, Mr Chenail was Human Resources Manager for Hospira Healthcare Corporation, a former division of Abbott Laboratories.

Norman Chenail is currently Vice President of the Board of the Chamber of Commerce and Industry of Saint Laurent. He holds a Bachelor of Commerce in Industrial Relations from McGill University and a certificate in law from the University of Ottawa.

“I am delighted we have attracted two such qualified managers to Vanier College,” says Gilbert Héroux, Director General of Vanier College. “And I am especially pleased that both Tom and Norman have such deep and close ties to the Saint Laurent community.”
