

Courses in bold are special sections for Liberal Arts students.

SEMESTER 1 (Autumn)

- 1 Ancient Civilizations: Ancient & Medieval World (332-115)
- 1 Philosophy: Ancient Philosophy (340-910)
- 1 Art History: Thematic Studies in History of Art (520-903)

- 1 English: Intro. to College English (603-101)
- 1 Humanities: World Views-Legacy of Athens & Jerusalem (345-102)
- 1 French* OR Concentration course [Category A]
- 1 Physical Education (109-101 or 109-102)

7 courses

* Students placed in 602-100 should take French in the first year.

SEMESTER 2 (Winter)

- 1 Methodology in Liberal Arts (300-302)
- 1 History: Post-Classical History (330-101)
- 1 Concentration course [Category B]

- 1 English: Western Literary Genres (603-102)
- 1 Humanities (345-101)
- 1 French* OR Concentration course [Category A]
- 1 Physical Education (109-101 or 109-102)

7 courses

* Students placed in 602-100 should take French in the first year.

SEMESTER 3 (Autumn)

- 1 Philosophy: Modern Philosophy (340-912)
- 1 Principles of Math & Logic (360-124)
- 1 Concentration course [Category A]
- 1 Concentration course [Category B]

- 1 English: Literary Themes (603-103)
- 1 Humanities (345-HSD)
- 1 French OR Concentration course [Category C]
- 1 Physical Education (109-103)

8 courses

SEMESTER 4 (Winter)

- 1 Science, History & Methodology (360-125)
- 1 Integrative Project (360-126)
- 1 Religion: People and their Myths (370-121)
- 2 Concentration courses [Category D] ◇

- 1 English: English for Liberal Arts (603-HSF)
- 1 French OR Concentration course [Category C]

7 courses

In addition to passing the above courses, students in the Liberal Arts program must pass the ENGLISH EXIT EXAM and COMPREHENSIVE ASSESSMENT.

See attached list of courses for each of the Categories.

◇ One course if Mathematics or Science (2.66 credits) is taken.

Students who wish to take more than one Mathematics course should consult an Academic Advisor.