These are three profiles for applicants who need to either make up missing prerequisite courses or improve their academic standing. They typically last one semester. During this semester Vanier personnel will assist you with support, inside and outside of the classroom. This added support is to maximize your chances of success.

Choosing the appropriate profile for your particular circumstances can be complicated. We strongly suggest that you consult with Admissions or Explorations. For more information on specific profiles, see the Explorations website.

PASSAGES PROFILE

Students may take a full load of seven courses. Credits earned for English, Humanities, French and Physical Education courses can be applied to all DEC programs.

Students may take a full load of seven courses. Credits earned for English, Humanities, French and Physical Education courses can be applied to all DEC programs.

“I found Explorations very useful because I passed all the Math and Science courses needed to get into the program I wanted.” – Michelle

“Explorations helped me know what is expected of me. It gave me a chance to transit from the work force back into student life. It is difficult to come back to school and cope with the full workload. Explorations helped me to ease my way back.”

– Diane

“I am studying Nursing at Vanier. Explorations was very good for me. I learned basic computer skills, essay writing, and how to do class presentations. On the first day of starting the Nursing program, all the new students were struggling with many things, and I was totally relaxed because I was coming through Explorations.”

– Pratapbhai

“I was in Explorations for two semesters. It helped me realize what I really wanted to do and helped me get the extra courses I needed. I think everyone can benefit from these programs.”
